Role of the Principal, teachers and staff:

Date :

The teachers including head teachers should safeguard children's wellbeing and maintain public trust in the teaching profession as part of their professional duties. The School teachers also above have a responsibility to provide a safe learning environment for children, where they could identify children who may be in need of extra help or who are suffering or are likely to suffer.

Significant harm they also hold a responsibility to take appropriate action working with other services as needed. In addition to working with the designated safeguarding lead staff members should be aware that they might be asked to support social workers to make decisions about individual children.

In this regards, all the teaching and non teaching teachers of the school are expected to be clear about the 'Section IV' of the child safety manual issued by NCPCR. This will serve as guidelines for ensuring Child Safety at school.

Monitoring

The school shall form a committee every year with all the stakeholders involved in the welfare of children to ensure that all the aspects of child safety inside the school and other related workspaces are properly established and monitored. The child safety checklist prescribed by NCPCR must used for continuous and sustainable improvement.

Policy implementation and review:

This document is prepared after due discussion with the Management of the school and the members of the CWSPC. This document will be henceforth referred to as Child Welfare Safety and Protection Policy of THE SAN GLOBAL SCHOOL International School. The policy will be implemented and reviewed by the committee annually or as and when required. The school reserves the right to amend, abrogate, modify, and rescind/reinstate the entire policy or any part of it at any time.
